

Child Safety Policy - Child Safe Standard 2

Truganina College

PURPOSE

Truganina College's Child Safety Policy sets out the College's commitment and approach to creating and maintaining a child safe organisation where children and young people are safe and feel safe, and provides the policy framework for the College's approach to the Child Safe Standards.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all staff, volunteers, and contractors in the College environment, whether or not they work in direct contact with children or young people. This policy also applies to College council members where indicated.

The policy will apply to the College environment (see Definitions section). The policy covers both within school hours and outside of school hours.

DEFINITIONS

Child abuse

Child abuse includes:

- any act committed against a child involving:
  - a sexual offence; or
  - grooming; and
- the infliction, on a child, of:
  - physical violence; or
  - serious emotional or psychological harm; and
- serious neglect of a child.

Child-connected work

Child-connected work means work authorised by the school, school council, or Secretary of the Department of Education and Training and performed by an adult in a school environment while children are present or reasonably expected to be present.

Child safety

Child safety encompasses matters related to protecting all children from child abuse, managing the risk of child abuse, providing support to a child at risk of child abuse, and responding to incidents or allegations of child abuse.

School environment

School environment means any physical or virtual place made available or authorised by the school for use by a child during or outside school hours, including:

- a campus of the school;
- online school environments (including email and intranet systems); and

- other locations provided by the College for a child’s use (including, without limitation, locations used for school camps, sporting events, excursions, competitions, homestays, and other College activities or events)

School staff

School staff means an individual working in a school environment who is:

- employed by the Department of Education and Training;
- directly engaged or employed by a school council; or
- a volunteer or a contracted service provider (whether or not a body corporate or any other person is an intermediary).

STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT TO CHILD SAFETY AND CHILD SAFETY PRINCIPLES

Truganina College is committed to the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people. This will be the primary focus of our care and decision-making.

The College’s approach to creating and maintaining a child safe College environment is guided by our College philosophy and values. At Truganina College our purpose statement is “Inspiring Excellence in Learning to Believe, Achieve and Succeed”. We know children can struggle to achieve their personal best if they are not safe from abuse.

At Truganina College our values guide the decisions and behaviours of all members of our College community, including in relation to child safety:

- Learn – We actively learn through persistence and having a growth mindset.
- Respect – We are respectful by being kind to ourselves, others and the environment.
- Responsible – We are responsible by being safe, honest and following instructions.
- Resilience – We are resilient by noticing our emotions, problem solving and knowing when to ask for help.

Truganina College has zero tolerance for child abuse.

We are committed to providing a child safe environment where children and young people are safe and feel safe, and their voices are heard about decisions that affect their lives. Our child safe policies, procedures, strategies and practices will be inclusive of the needs of all children, particularly Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, children from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, children with disabilities, and children who are vulnerable.

Every person involved in Truganina College has a responsibility to understand the important and specific role they play individually and collectively to ensure that the wellbeing and safety of all children and young people is at the forefront of all they do and every decision they make.

Child safety principles

In its planning, decision-making and operations, Truganina College will:

1. Take a preventative, proactive and participatory approach to child safety;
2. Value and empower children to participate in decisions which affect their lives;
3. Foster a culture of openness that supports all persons to safely disclose risks of harm to children;
4. Respect diversity in cultures and child rearing practices while keeping child safety paramount;
5. Provide written guidance on appropriate conduct and behaviour towards children;
6. Engage only the most suitable people to work with children and have high quality staff and volunteer supervision and professional development;
7. Ensure children know who to talk with if they are worried or are feeling unsafe, and that they are comfortable and encouraged to raise such concerns;
8. Report suspected abuse, neglect or mistreatment promptly to the appropriate authorities;
9. Share information appropriately and lawfully with other organisations where the safety and wellbeing of children is at risk; and
10. Value the input of and communicate regularly with families and carers.

POLICY

Strategies to embed a child safe culture

Truganina College's culture encourages staff, students, parents and the school community to raise, discuss and scrutinise child safety concerns. This makes it more difficult for abuse to occur and remain hidden.

All child safety documents, including this policy, the Child Safety Code of Conduct [<https://truganinap9.vic.edu.au/child-safe/>], the College's Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures [<https://truganinap9.vic.edu.au/child-safe/>], Identifying and Responding to All Forms of Abuse in Victorian Schools and the Four Critical Actions for Schools are readily available online on the Child Safe tab on the Truganina College website and in hard copy (in both administration blocks) for all staff and students to read at any time.

Child safety is everyone's responsibility. All College staff are required to:

- Act in accordance with the College's Child Safety Code of Conduct, which clearly sets out the difference between appropriate and inappropriate behaviour
- Act in accordance with the Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures at all times, including following the Four Critical Actions for Schools (DET Website) where necessary
- Undertake annual guidance and training on child safety
- Act in accordance with their legal obligations, including:
  - Failure to disclose offence (applies to all adults)
  - Duty of care (applies to all College staff)
  - Mandatory reporting obligations (applies to all mandatory reporters, including teachers, principals, registered psychologists, and registered doctors and nurses)
  - Failure to protect offence (applies to a person in a position of authority within the College)
  - Reportable conduct obligations (applies to all College staff in reporting conduct to the principal, and applies to the principal in reporting to Employee Conduct Branch)
  - Organisational duty of care (applies to the College as an organisation)

- For more information on these obligations, see Identifying and Responding to All Forms of Abuse in Victorian Schools.

As part of Truganina College’s child safe culture, school leadership (including the principal and assistant principals) will:

- Consider the diversity of all children, including (but not limited to) the needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, children from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, children with disabilities, and children who are vulnerable, when implementing the Child Safe Standards
- Ensure that child safety is a regular agenda item at school leadership meetings and staff meetings
- Encourage and enable staff professional learning and training to build deeper understandings of child safety and prevention of abuse
- Ensure that no one is prohibited or discouraged from reporting an allegation of child abuse to a person external to the College or from making records of any allegation.

As part of Truganina College’s child safe culture, school mandatory reporting staff are required to:

- Complete the Protecting Children – Mandatory reporting and other obligations online module every year
- Read the College’s Child Safety Code of Conduct on induction, and maintain familiarity with that document
- Read the College’s Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures on induction, and maintain familiarity with that document
- Read the College’s Child Safety Policy (this document) on induction, and maintain familiarity with that document.

As part of Truganina College’s child safe culture, in performing the functions and powers given to them under the Education and Training Reform Act 2006, school councils and school council members will:

- Ensure that child safety is a regular agenda item at school council meetings
- Consider the diversity of all children, including (but not limited to) the needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, children from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, children with disabilities, and children who are vulnerable, when making decisions regarding the Child Safe Standards
- Undertake annual guidance and training on child safety, such as the Child Safe Standards School Council Training PowerPoint.
- Approve the Child Safety Code of Conduct to the extent that it applies to school council employees and members, and if updated, note the new document in its school council meeting minutes
- When hiring employees, ensure that selection, supervision and management practices are child safe (unless delegated to the principal).

School leadership will maintain records of the above processes.

Roles and responsibilities

School leaders will ensure that each person understands their role, responsibilities and behaviour expected in protecting children and young people from abuse and neglect. Staff will comply with the school’s Child Safety Code of Conduct, which sets out clearly the difference between appropriate and inappropriate behaviour.

Owner: L.Foster [AUTHOR]	Approved by: J.Crowle [APPROVER]	Review date: April 2022	Version 1.0	Page 4 of 8

Specific child safety responsibilities:

- Assistant Principal Student Wellbeing and Engagement is responsible for reviewing and updating the Child Safety Policy every 2 years.
- Assistant Principals are responsible for monitoring the school's compliance with the Child Safety Policy. The school community should approach any Assistant Principal if they have any concerns about the school's compliance with the Child Safety Policy.
- Assistant Principal Student Wellbeing and Engagement is responsible for informing the College community about this policy, and making it publicly available.
- Other specific roles and responsibilities are named in Truganina College's other child safety policies and procedures, including the Child Safety Code of Conduct, Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures, and risk assessment register.

Recruitment

Truganina College follows the Department's Recruitment in Schools guide to ensure child safe recruitment practices, available on the Department's website.

All prospective volunteers are required to comply with our College's Volunteers Policy, including in relation to assessing the suitability of prospective volunteers and obtaining checks required under this policy. All prospective volunteers are required to maintain a valid Working with Children Check.

Training and supervision

Training and education is important to ensure that everyone in the College understands that child safety is everyone's responsibility.

Our College culture aims for all staff and volunteers (in addition to parents/carers and children) to feel confident and comfortable in coming forward with any allegations or suspicions of child abuse or child safety concerns. We train our staff and volunteers to identify, assess, and minimise risks of child abuse and to detect potential signs of child abuse. This training occurs annually or more often as required.

We also support our staff and volunteers through ongoing supervision to develop their skills to protect children from abuse, to promote the cultural safety of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and children from linguistically and/or diverse backgrounds, and the safety of children with a disability and vulnerable children.

New employees and volunteers will be inducted into the College, including by being referred to the Child Safety Policy (this document), the Child Safety Code of Conduct, and the Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures on the College website. New employees must sign a copy of the Child Safe Code of Conduct and receives a hard copy of the Child Safe Policy and the Duty of Care Policy. They will also be supervised regularly to ensure they understand our College's commitment to child safety, and that their behaviour towards children is safe and appropriate. All employees of our College will be monitored and assessed via regular performance review to ensure their continuing suitability for child-connected work. Any inappropriate behaviour will be reported by College staff to the Principal or Assistant Principal and will be managed in accordance with Truganina College's Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures [<https://truganinap9.vic.edu.au/child-safe/>] where required.

Reporting a child safety concern or complaint

The College has clear expectations for all staff and volunteers in making a report about a child or young person who may be in need of protection. All staff (including school council employees) must follow the school's Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures, including following the Four Critical Actions for Schools if there is an incident, disclosure or suspicion of child abuse. Immediate actions should include reporting their concerns to DHHS Child Protection, Victoria Police and/or another appropriate agency and notifying the principal or a member of the school leadership team of their concerns and the reasons for those concerns.

Truganina College will never prohibit or discourage College staff from reporting an allegation of child abuse. The College will always take action to respond to a complaint in accordance with the College's Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures. In accordance with Action 4 of the Four Critical Actions for Schools, Truganina College will provide ongoing support for students affected by child abuse.

The Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures can be found at <https://truganinap9.vic.edu.au/child-safe/>.

Risk reduction and management

Truganina College believes the wellbeing of children and young people is paramount, and is vigilant in ensuring proper risk management processes, found in the College's Child Safe risk assessment register. The College recognises there are potential risks to children and young people and will take a risk management approach by undertaking preventative measures.

We will identify and mitigate the risks of child abuse in school environments by taking into account the nature of each school environment, the activities expected to be conducted in that environment and the characteristics and needs of all children expected to be present in that environment.

Truganina College monitors and evaluates the effectiveness of the actions it takes to reduce or remove risks to child safety, more information can be found in the College's risk assessment register.

Listening to, communicating with and empowering children

Truganina College has developed a safe, inclusive and supportive environment that involves and communicates with children, young people and their parents/carers. We encourage child and parent/carer involvement and engagement that informs safe school operations and builds the capability of children and parents/carers to understand their rights and their responsibilities. Our College is committed to supporting and encouraging students to use their voice to raise and share their concerns with a trusted adult at any time of need. Students can access information on how to report abuse at the College administration and first aid rooms as well as on the Truganina College website.

When the school is gathering information in relation to a complaint about alleged misconduct with, or abuse of a child, the school will listen to the complainant's account and take them seriously, check understanding and keep the child (and/or their parents/carers, as appropriate) informed about progress.

The College will promote the Child Safe Standards in ways that are readily accessible, easy to understand, and user-friendly to children, including:

- All of our child safety policies and procedures will be available for the students and parents at Truganina College to read at <https://truganinap9.vic.edu.au/child-safe/>.

- PROTECT Child Safety posters will be displayed across the College
- College newsletters will inform students and the College community about the College's commitment to child safety, and strategies or initiatives that the College is taking to ensure student safety
- Explicit teaching through the School Wide Positive Behaviour and Respectful Relationships Curriculum.
- The whole College is encouraged to contribute to risk assessment and mitigation, the Child Safe Standards are addressed and explained at regular Professional Learning Community meetings.

The College will use its health and wellbeing programs to deliver appropriate education to its students about:

- healthy and respectful relationships (including sexuality) through the Respectful Relationships Departmental curriculum;
- School Wide Positive Behaviour explicit teaching of standards of behaviour for students attending the College;
- resilience; and
- child abuse awareness and prevention.

Communications

This College is committed to communicating our child safety strategies to the school community through:

- Ensuring that the Child Safety Policy (this document), Code of Conduct, and the Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedure are available on the College website.
- Once per term reminders in the school newsletter of our school's commitment to child safety.
- Ensuring that child safety is a regular agenda item at school leadership meetings (Principal Class meetings and School Council) and PLC meetings for discussion.
- The PROTECT poster is visible in every learning space for students to easily access.
- Initial induction for all staff annually, with signed copy of the Code of Conduct kept on file.

Confidentiality and privacy

This school collects, uses and discloses information about particular children and their families in accordance with Victorian privacy law. The principles regulating the collection, use and storage of information is included in the Department of Education and Training's Schools' Privacy Policy.
